Stage 1

We'll acknowledge receipt of your complaint straight away and aim to send you a full reply within 10 working days. If this isn't possible, we'll let you know and tell you when you can expect a reply. In our response, we'll always let you know if your complaint is being treated as maladministration or a review and the next stage of escalation.

Stage 2

If you've been through stage 1 and feel that your complaint hasn't been resolved to your satisfaction, you can ask the Resolutions Team to escalate your complaint to stage 2, where it will be reviewed by a member of our Senior Resolutions Panel. You should make your stage 2 complaint within 28 days of our response at stage 1 being issued. We'll aim to send you a full reply within 28 days.

Stage 3

If you feel your complaint hasn't been resolved to your satisfaction at stage 2, you can escalate your complaint to stage 3 where a committee of PPF non-executive directors will consider your complaint. You'll need to ask the Resolutions Team to escalate your complaint to them within 28 days of receipt of your stage 2 decision.

Stage 4

If you feel your complaint hasn't been resolved to your satisfaction at the earlier stages of our process, you can send your complaint to the Pension Protection Fund Ombudsman.

They'll expect you to have tried to resolve your complaint directly with us, in line with our complaints process, before they'll consider your complaint. You'll also need to escalate your complaint to them within 28 days of our stage 3 response being issued, although the Pension Protection Fund Ombudsman can extend this time in exceptional circumstances.

In certain circumstances the Pension Protection Fund Ombudsman might determine that they cannot review part or all of a complaint. They will write to you as soon as possible to tell you. They may also advise you to contact a different adjudicator, the Independent Case Examiner. The Pension Protection Fund Ombudsman will provide their contact details to you.
